Risks of the activity

Camping carries real risks, even with trained staff and good equipment. They include:

- Wild animals, snakes and insect bites
- Burns from campfires and stoves
- Trips and falls on uneven ground at night
- Flooding, storms or falling branches
- Distance from hospitals and limited phone signal

Rules

1. Light fires only in the marked fire pits; never leave one burning.

2. Keep food sealed and away from tents.
3. Do not wander outside the campsite after dark without a guide.
4. Quiet hours run from 10 pm to 6 am.
5. No alcohol near water or during activities.

☐ I will follow them and any instruction from the staff. Staff may stop me from taking part if a rule is broken.

Assumption of risk and release

- I take part voluntarily and accept the risks described above, as well as risks that cannot be foreseen.
- To the extent the law allows, I release the campsite, its staff and volunteers from claims for injury, illness, loss or damage arising from my participation, except claims caused by their gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- I will compensate the organiser for loss caused by my own breach of the rules or deliberate damage to equipment or property.
- In an emergency, the staff may arrange first aid, transport and medical treatment for me. I will pay the reasonable costs that insurance does not cover.
- Nothing in this release limits any liability that cannot be excluded under Indian law, including the Consumer Protection Act, 2019.
