Specific terms

- Final count. The Client confirms the final number of plates 72 hours before the event; billing is for the higher of the final count and plates actually served.
- Food safety. The Caterer holds a valid FSSAI licence and follows hygiene practices; food left over after service is not the Caterer's responsibility.
- Allergies. The Client tells the Caterer about allergies and dietary needs in advance.
- Breakages. Crockery or equipment broken by guests may be charged at cost.

Standard terms

- Independent contractor. The Caterer is an independent contractor, not an employee, and is responsible for its own staff, taxes and statutory dues.
- Confidentiality. Each party keeps the other's non-public information confidential during this agreement and for two years after it ends.
- Liability. Except for fraud, wilful misconduct or breach of confidentiality, each party's total liability is limited to the fees paid in the three months before the claim.
- Termination. Either party may end this agreement by written notice of the period chosen below, or at once if the other party commits a serious breach and does not fix it within 7 days. The Client pays for work done up to the end date.
- Taxes. Fees exclude GST, which is added to invoices where applicable.
