Financial Power of Attorney

The Principal appoints the Attorney to act on the Principal's behalf as set out below.

Note: Under the First Schedule of the Information Technology Act, 2000, some documents (such as powers of attorney, trusts, wills and contracts for sale of immovable property) may need a handwritten signature, stamping or registration to be enforceable. Check local requirements before relying on an electronic signature.

Execution. Print this document on stamp paper of the value your state requires (or e-stamp it), sign it by hand before two witnesses, and have it notarised. A power of attorney relating to immovable property must also be registered. This electronic version records the agreed text and the parties' consent.
