Risks of the activity

Football training and matches carries real risks, even with trained staff and good equipment. They include:

- Tackles and collisions causing sprains, fractures and ligament injuries
- Head injuries from heading or collisions
- Turf burns and abrasions
- Heat exhaustion

Rules

1. Shin guards are required at every session; studs suited to the surface.
2. No jewellery during play.
3. Respect referees, coaches and opponents; no fighting.
4. Players with a suspected head injury sit out until cleared.

☐ I will follow them and any instruction from the staff. Staff may stop me from taking part if a rule is broken.

Assumption of risk and release

- I take part voluntarily and accept the risks described above, as well as risks that cannot be foreseen.
- To the extent the law allows, I release the football academy, its staff and volunteers from claims for injury, illness, loss or damage arising from my participation, except claims caused by their gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- I will compensate the organiser for loss caused by my own breach of the rules or deliberate damage to equipment or property.
- In an emergency, the staff may arrange first aid, transport and medical treatment for me. I will pay the reasonable costs that insurance does not cover.
- Nothing in this release limits any liability that cannot be excluded under Indian law, including the Consumer Protection Act, 2019.
