Rights granted

- The organisation may use photos and videos of the child taken during its programmes in its newsletters, website and official social-media pages.
- Only the child's first name, if any, will appear with the material.
- The parent may withdraw this consent at any time by writing to the organisation.

Where may the material be used?

◯ Internal use only ◯ Website and newsletter ◯ Also social media
◯ Also press and advertising

Limits

- The material will not be used in a way that is defamatory, sexualised, or that suggests personal endorsement of a political party, tobacco, alcohol or gambling product, unless agreed in writing.
- The child's home address, school and contact details will never be published.
- Material already published before a withdrawal request need not be recalled, but no new use will be made after written withdrawal, where this release allows withdrawal.

General terms

- Governing law. This document is governed by the laws of India.
- Entire agreement. This document is the whole agreement between the parties on its subject and replaces earlier discussions.

- Amendments. Changes are valid only in writing signed by both parties.
- Severability. If a clause is unenforceable, the rest of the document still applies.
- Electronic signatures. The parties agree to sign electronically; electronic signatures and records are valid under the Information Technology Act, 2000.
