Risks of the activity

Tandem paragliding carries real risks, even with trained staff and good equipment. They include:

- Hard landings causing fractures, especially to legs and spine

- Collapse of the wing in turbulence
- Collision with terrain, trees or other gliders
- Sudden weather change during flight

Rules

1. Follow the pilot's instructions on running at take-off and lifting legs at landing.
2. Wear the helmet and harness as fitted by the pilot.
3. Do not unclip or adjust any strap in flight.
4. The pilot may delay or cancel the flight for weather; the fee is then refunded or rescheduled.

☐ I will follow them and any instruction from the staff. Staff may stop me from taking part if a rule is broken.

Passenger weight must be within the limit set by the operator for the tandem wing in use (typically 25-100 kg). The operator may refuse a flight if the stated weight is wrong.

Assumption of risk and release

- I take part voluntarily and accept the risks described above, as well as risks that cannot be foreseen.
- To the extent the law allows, I release the paragliding operator, its staff and volunteers from claims for injury, illness, loss or damage arising from my participation, except claims caused by their gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- I will compensate the organiser for loss caused by my own breach of the rules or deliberate damage to equipment or property.
- In an emergency, the staff may arrange first aid, transport and medical treatment for me. I will pay the reasonable costs that insurance does not cover.
- Nothing in this release limits any liability that cannot be excluded under Indian law, including the Consumer Protection Act, 2019.
