Seller's statements

- Ownership. The Seller is the lawful owner and has the right to sell the item.
- No claims. The item is free of loans, liens, hypothecation and third-party claims unless stated in this document.
- Health guarantee. If a vet finds a serious congenital condition within 7 days of handover, the Seller takes the puppy back for a full refund or replacement.
- Breeder registration. Where state rules require, the Seller is registered under the Dog Breeding and Marketing Rules, 2017.
- Condition. The Seller confirms the item is in the condition described above and will repair or refund if it materially differs within 7 days of handover.
- Risk. Risk passes to the Buyer at handover. Any GST or stamp duty that applies is paid as the law requires.

Initials

☐ I will provide proper food, shelter, vaccination and vet care, and will not abandon the dog.

☐ If I can no longer keep the dog, I will first offer it back to the breeder.

General terms

- Governing law. This document is governed by the laws of India.
- Entire agreement. This document is the whole agreement between the parties on its subject and replaces earlier discussions.
- Amendments. Changes are valid only in writing signed by both parties.
- Severability. If a clause is unenforceable, the rest of the document still applies.
- Notices. Notices may be sent to the email addresses given above and take effect on delivery.
- Electronic signatures. The parties agree to sign electronically; electronic signatures and records are valid under the Information Technology Act, 2000.
