Terms

1. Each month the business pays the agreed share of the previous month's revenue until the total paid equals the repayment cap.
2. The business shares read-only access to its payment gateway, marketplace or accounting data so the funder can verify revenue.
3. If revenue falls, payments fall too; there is no fixed EMI. The cap does not change.
4. If the business sells itself or stops trading, the unpaid balance of the cap becomes due.
