Specific terms

- Orders. Each purchase order is accepted when the Supplier confirms it or starts delivery.
- Price review. Prices may be revised once every 6 months with 30 days' notice, backed by input-cost changes.
- Continuity. The Supplier gives 90 days' notice before discontinuing a product.

Standard commercial terms

- Delivery and risk. Goods are delivered as per the Incoterm or delivery terms in the order; risk passes on delivery and title passes on full payment.
- Inspection. The buyer inspects goods within 7 days of delivery and reports shortages or defects in writing with photos; otherwise the goods are treated as accepted.
- Quality. Goods match the agreed specifications, are fit for their usual purpose and comply with applicable law, including the Legal Metrology (Packaged Commodities) Rules and BIS standards where they apply.
- Confidentiality. Prices, customer data and business plans shared under this agreement are kept confidential during it and for two years after.
- Liability. Neither party is liable for indirect or lost-profit losses. Each party's total liability is capped at the amount paid or payable in the 12 months before the claim, except for fraud or breach of confidentiality.
- Termination. Either party may end this agreement by written notice of the period below, or at once for a material breach not fixed within 15 days. Orders already accepted are completed.
- Force majeure. Neither party is liable for delay caused by events beyond its reasonable control, such as natural disasters, epidemics or government action.
